THE SALAMANCA ARTS CENTRE

In the heart of Hobart's historic Salamanca Place, behind the impressive sandstone walls of seven Georgian warehouses and one historic cottage, is one of the most exciting, lively and innovative arts centres in Australia. The Salamanca Arts Centre is home to many artists, crafts people and community, training, cross-art, visual and performing arts organisations. It houses some of Tasmania's premiere cultural venues including the Peacock Theatre, Long Gallery and Sidespace Gallery. As well as shops and galleries selling a vast array of local art and craft. The Centre offers public spaces to be shared and enjoyed, a cafe, and a constantly changing program of exhibitions, performances and public events.

OBJECTIVES

The Arts Centre premises are provided by the State Government and operated by Salamanca Arts Centre. In addition to administering the premises, the Salamanca Arts Centre presents an annual arts program of diverse artforms. SAC's mission is to develop and promote the arts in Tasmania through leadership, quality arts programs and service. All this results in Salamanca Arts Centre being one of the most vibrant cultural centres in Australia, a Centre where there is always something happening
